

Saturday, February 17, 2007
the Wobbly Kitchen presents

Valentine's Day Weekend
Spaghetti Dinner/Movie Fundraiser to benefit the workers of UAW 364 of Elkhart, Indiana

Hear speakers from UAW 364 tell their story of the 9-month strike at Conn-Selmer

Followed by the Detroit-area premiere of Mother Jones —The Most Dangerous Woman In America

A documentary by labor historian and videographer Rose Feurer. (30 min.)

$10.00

Suggested donation, unless you're a striking worker; in that case welcome for free!

Saturday, February 17, 2007 at 5:30 pm.

UAW "West Side Local 174, Home Local of Walter P. Reuther", 29841 Van Born Road, Romulus, 734-728-7600

(between Middlebelt and Merriman)

<http://www.local174.com/home1.html>

Thanks to Local 174 for their generous hospitality

Members of local 364 have been on strike since April at the Conn-Selmer musical instrument factory in Elkhart. 230 highly skilled makers of trumpets, trombones and other instruments went out after bosses demanded more than $8/hr in concessions. Unskilled "replacement workers" are making the expensive instruments.

For more on the strike, visit <http://www.uaw.org/solidarity/index.cfm>

Watch the Elkhart strike video! <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-3386674426389672298>