

Cross-Border Unity Against the Korea Free Trade Agreement

*A Speaker's Tour with the Korean
Confederation of Trade Union's Kim Kyung-Ran*

Tuesday, January 11 • 6:30 pm

Machinists Union Hall
3645 SE 32nd Ave • Portland, OR

In early December, U.S. and Korean trade negotiators struck a deal that is expected to bring the Korea Free Trade Agreement to the floor of Congress in early 2011. This is the biggest free trade agreement since NAFTA, and is strongly opposed by the largest labor federations in each country.

Hear from Kim Kyung-Ran, director of external relations for the Korean Confederation of Trade Unions, as she:

- Inspires us to action with photos and stories from some of South Korea's largest and most dramatic mobilizations against the FTA to date
- Busts the myth that job-killing trade deals that hurt ordinary Americans somehow benefit working people in other countries

Kyung-Ran's stunning 35-minute slide presentation will be followed by short reports from local activists, updating you on the expected impact of the FTA in our region and how you can get involved in local efforts to stop it.

Portland Rally Against the Korea FTA

Wednesday, January 12 • 12:00 noon

Outside Senator Wyden's Office
911 NE 11th Ave • Portland, OR

Join displaced workers, the unemployed and labor leaders from Oregon and South Korea in saying "NO WAY to the Korea FTA!" outside the office of U.S. Senator Ron Wyden — the Chair of the Senate Trade Subcommittee.
