

KORUS, Another NAFTA?

SF Educational Conference on US-KOREA Free Trade Agreement & The Korean Peninsula

February 27 (Sunday), 2011 9:30 AM - 5:00 PM
University of San Francisco, McLaren Hall

(Fulton St & Clayton St. San Francisco)

Free

The Korea-US KORUS will be the largest free trade agreement in the US since NAFTA. This conference will look at the affect of NAFTA in the US and Mexico and the proposed KORUS trade agreement between the United States and Korea. How will the economic rules of this new agreement affect the conditions for farmers and workers are in Korea and for US workers and the environment.

It will also look at the movement for democratic communication rights and media in Korea under the present administration. Education, healthcare, food and many other areas will be radically changed under this agreement and this will be outlined at this educational conference.

Finally the conference will also look at the growing militarization of the Korean peninsula, why this is taking place and what this means for the people of Korea and the United States. This will be the first educational conference in the United States on this important proposed agreement.
